Prestige Bailiff Services is, in itself, a relatively new name, though the team behind it come from a hugely experienced background in their respective fields.

Our managing bailiff has over 30 years of experience as a certified bailiff, having worked for several of the country's industry-leading firms including IPCS Group, headed by James Lackie.

Our bailiff office manager has a career history including service as an operational Northumbria Police officer as well as other management roles.

SURVEILLANCE & DEBT RECOVERY

If an individual, company or client owes you money, has missed payments, or is in arrears, we can help make progress and reclaim what you're owed.

Whatever the debt, large or small, we can offer practical help and advice to take the most appropriate action.

With the powers and authority to serve a range of legal documentation including Statutory Demands under the Insolvency Act 1986, we pride ourselves on success.

A common misconception within business is that you need to take the company or individual to court and obtain a County Court Judgement (CCJ) before you can commence recovery procedures.

It might surprise you to know that this is not the case at all. In effect, a CCJ is just a piece of paper that tells you you're entitled to chase your money. It's still up to you to then chase

Our managing bailiff has worked for some of the region's biggest names, and worked extensively around Europe in the course of his duties.

Previous clients include Newcastle United Promotions, Holystone Waste, Dolphin Bathrooms, Moben, and Kitchens Direct, to name just a few.

Debt Recovery work has been carried out here in the United Kingdom as well as in France, Germany, Spain, and Ireland, with surveillance duties at various locations.

the individual or company and battle to get payment - and that can be easier said than done.

We can undertake surveillance projects to assist in evidence gathering and collating of an individual's movements and assets.

Speak to us first - we can offer more effective solutions where you're more likely to get results.

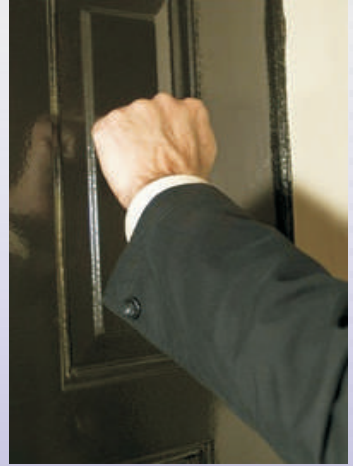

We can act via debt recovery letters, warnings, home or work visits, right through to the issuing of a Statutory Demand - which essentially requires the debtor to pay the bill in full within 21 days or face bankruptcy proceedings under the Insolvency Act 1986.

BAILIFF SERVICES

Our services can cover almost any aspect of commercial and domestic bailiff work, including rent, arrears, debts, penalty charge collections, former tenant arrears etc.

We act in accordance with the law at all times, and our managing bailiff has over 30 years of experience in the field.

Although based in County Durham, we have legal jurisdiction across England and Wales.

TRACING & TRACKING

Trying to track down someone who owes you money and appears to have literally disappeared into thin air?

Prestige Bailiff Services can help trace people who have disappeared or who are trying to keep themselves hidden away from their debts or responsibilities.

You give us the details you know, and we'll take it from there.

CLOSE PROTECTION

Prestige Bailiff Services offer experienced Close Protection operatives, available for a range of duties.

From special events to special venues, whatever the situation, we'll take care of the important people, leaving you to take care of the event itself.

All of our security operatives are fully SIA approved and registered.
